Center for Missouri Studies, Columbia, Missouri (or virtually if necessary)

The Missouri Council for History Education is planning its 15th annual conference focusing on the best practices in history education. We invite you to submit a breakout session proposal. Sessions may feature lessons on episodes in U.S. or World History, curriculum issues facing social studies teachers, technology use in the classroom, or other topics relating to content and methodology. Proposals may include panels, roundtables, and/or workshops. All sessions will be approximately sixty minutes in length. Due to the uncertain timeline of our nation's and state's response to Covid-19, please know that we are making plans to present the conference virtually if necessary. Presenters should be prepared to lead their breakout sessions through an online platform (like Zoom) if we are not able to gather face-to-face. MOCHE will facilitate and moderate all online presentations.
